

A large, artistic watercolor illustration of a butterfly in shades of teal and turquoise, positioned on the left side of the page. The butterfly's wings are spread, and the colors are blended and textured, giving it a soft, painterly appearance. It is partially obscured by a white rectangular box containing text.

Register online at:
www.homeunlimited.org/aolw-texas

For more information:
Lauren Marchetti
laurenemarchetti@gmail.com
713-449-2956

The Art of Living for Women

Seminars with hands-on experience giving you the skills you need to care for your family with confidence and artistry.

Culinary Art Fashion Home Health Interior Design Event Planning

The Art of Living for Women presents how a well-run, cheerful home lays the foundation for a more human society. Our seminars offer classes and hands-on experience giving you the skills you need to care for your family with confidence and artistry.

Saturday, October 15, 2022
10:00 AM to 12:30 PM

Fee: $30

Muffins, fruit, juice, coffee will be served.
Limited to 20 participants.

Location:

Home of Helen and Peter Haney in Houston
Houston, Texas

Please register and pay online at:

www.homeunlimited.org/aolw-texas

Planning and Order to Bring Peace and Joy in the Home

If you are a woman who wants to discover the true value of the work of the home, The Art of Living is for you! Married or single, come join us!

Class #1

Raquel Ginebra Smith will share little things we can do that bring peace and joy to our families. A small group breakout session with discussion questions will follow.

Class #2

Claire Pelletier, founder of Simplify with Claire, will share practical advice and tools to bring order to any space! Participants will have opportunities to practice her advice.