Downers Grove, Illinois
$25 Lunch will be served.

The home-base for the mission of parents is the home, which is both a spiritual and physical space. Our featured speaker will reveal practices that provide such nourishment in family life. The session will include a period of introspection where each participant can identify areas in her home routine where she could use some helpful ideas. This time will be followed by the opportunity to discuss these areas with a panel of women who have a range of experience.
