Cultivating friendships may have been difficult in the past few years but refreshed from this hiatus, we are determined to place friendship on the top of our to-do list! Let's sharpen our skills in the art of entertaining, and gathering friends and family together. Join us as we explore the different types of wine, from table wines to sparkling wines, to dessert wines. Learn about the different shapes of wine glasses, along with how to hold your glass, and some tips about matching wine with food.
